

Monthly Consignment Auctions

Mohawk Machinery Liquidators provides online auctions tailored to your needs.

Our online consignment auctions expose your equipment to buyers around the country and around the world. We utilize our directed email list as well as respected machinery publications and buyer lists to maximize the return on your surplus equipment.

Mohawk Machinery Liquidators monthly online consignment auctions are suitable for the seller with a few machines to dispose of. We work together so you get the best price possible. There is no charge to list your equipment and you get the sale price. Mohawk Machinery Liquidators gets the buyers premium for our efforts.

The more information you provide the better the results. Photos, videos, machine specifications and your ability to load provides the information buyers need to bid confidently.

When submitting your machinery please review the list of information needed to accurately post your surplus machinery.

The better the information provided the better the return for you!
